

DEADLINE!!! September 12, 2009

6 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Where: RedLine, 2350 Arapahoe St. Denver, CO 80205

If you ever want to see your city's artwork alive and well again, M. MediaPersonality, you'd better let everyone in your sphere of influence know that we've got ART and we're holding it for Ransom.

The horse, the giant head, those swirly things downtown - we've got 'em, and we're not telling what else we've got, but it's safe and sound for now.

Are you worried about a world without art? Be at Redline at the corner of Arapahoe and 24th on Sept. 12. For detailed instructions, -- like the kind of unmarked bills we want, the size of the paper bag, etc, go to www.ArtForRansom.org.
